WHAT WOULD WE DO? If all the world was always bright, Without a shadow creeping? An' suns kept shinin' day and night— What would we do for sleepin'?

If all the skies was always clear, An' spring kept a-stayin', An' bees made honey all the year— What would we do for sleighin'?

If everything went just our way, An' not a storm was howlin', An' cash came in for work or play, What would we do for growin'?

Just let the plan o' nature rest— Be glad for any weather; The fellow who still does his best Brings earth an' heaven together!

—Frank L. Stanton.

BOOMING!

SOME SEQUELS TO THE LATE REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

Returning Prosperity—Factories Starting Up—Work for American Workmen.

[Before the election The LEADER argued that Republican success meant a restoration of the opening of American factories and workshops, the return of business to its wonted channels, profitable and steady employment for American workmen, and an end of renewed poverty all along the line. That the hopes held out by The LEADER were not false ones is being fully demonstrated. Below are a few instances of the business revival that trends on the heels of the great Republican victory.—Editor.]

Ashland News: The Pittsburgh packets are having better business of late than at any time in many months of service.

Manchester Gazette: The sawmill started up Monday, after a long rest, and will have a continuous run for some months.

During the past seven days there were 328 failures throughout the United States, as compared with 385 the corresponding week last year.

Saturday's Bulletin: "Mr. Basil Duke, representing Rhinehart & Newton of Cincinnati, sold an Ashland merchant 2,100 pounds of cash Thursday—the largest bill he has sold in the Ohio valley this season." Why don't you say this is "state news"?

Newcastle, Ind.—The Globe Tinplate Company, with a capital stock of $150,000, recently organized here, last night installed the site of a mammoth plant on the North side of this city. The mill will be equal in size to the largest now in operation in America, and will give employment to more than four hundred persons.

Commercial Gazette: Since the election, it is said, not a single theatrical company of any consequence has been spoken of as being on the eve of dissolution. Prior to that time they were coming in by the dozens weekly, and sometimes daily. Things have decidedly improved since the contest came to a close, and now companies are reviving and going out again in the hope of having better luck. Big organizations are generally spoken of as doing very well in almost every portion of the country. It is a sign of the times and seems to forbid gloom. Nothing is a better barometer of public depression or good feeling than the theater. It shows the very first indication of an improved feeling.

Elwood, Ind.—The Holland Radiator plant, which has been purchased by Chicago and Indianapolis capitalists, will resume operations the middle of the coming week and will be operated at full capacity and with a full force of hands. The new company has plenty of capital and will enlarge the plant considerably within a year.

New York, November 23d.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade to-morrow will say: "There is some change for the better. The gain is slow, and in some directions not very distinct, but the signs of it are a little more definite than last week. The most important of them is larger employment of labor, answering a better demand on the whole for manufactured products."

Get your copy in today if you want representation in The LEADER's big Thanksgiving issue.

The Central Hotel will set up for its patrons a Thanksgiving Dinner that will be fit for the gods. There will be turkey with cranberry sauce, oysters in all mince pies and—and—and—but words fail.

Al Robinson and Andrew Clark got into a row at Belle Carr's house in the Fifth Ward Saturday night, on the occasion of a dance. Clark cut Robinson on the head, Belle Carr on the hand and another woman on the side, both slightly. The women were trying to separate the fighters. All were colored. The participants were arrested and will have a hearing to-morrow morning.

Building Association Receipts.

The receipts of the several Building Associations of this city Saturday night were as follows:

Mason County	$ 490 10
Limestone	525 00
People's	247 95
Total	$ 1,263 05

AMERICA FOR AMERICANS

McKINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD.

In 1890 William McKinley was burned in effigy in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield; but in 1904 William L. Wilson was dined and wine in London because he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant facts.

Did the thief who stole the ten commandments from the church at Newark, N. J., break them?—Covington Commonwealth.

No; he merely "crimiped" them.

This Democratic Free-trade Administration has opened to us the "markets of the world" for one American product—United States bonds. There had been no necessity for them under Republican Administrations since the war.

GREEN KELLER of The Carlisle Mercury says: "We like to see good Republicans get office under Republican Administrations. Damn a Mugwump." But, Bro. KELLER, it looks like Uncle Grover doesn't intend to leave any places for us poor fellows to tumble into. However, we're with you on the Mugwump proposition.

ANOTHER issue of $50,000,000 of bonds is being made and the country is again plunged in debt to meet its current expenses. The Government income is not meeting the demands upon it. Where is the trouble? We were told that the Sherman Silver Bill was responsible for the necessity of the first issue. The Bill was repealed. We are now told that the McKinley Tariff Bill is responsible. The latter has been repealed. What will be the next excuse?

PRICE OF COTTON.

How Democracy Helps the Southern Cotton Planters.

In 1872, when Grant was elected President, the House stood 88 Democrats to 203 Republicans. The price of cotton advanced to 37 cents in New York.

In 1874 the House changed from 88 Democrats to 181 Democrats, making a Democratic House. Cotton declined to 16 1/2 cents.

In 1876 the House stood 156 Democrats to 137 Republicans. A Democratic House, and cotton declined to 13 1/2 cents.

In 1878 the House stood 150 Democrats to 138 Republicans. A Democratic House, and cotton declined to 13 1/2 cents.

In 1880 Garfield was elected. The House stood 132 Republicans to 150 Democrats, changing to a Republican majority, and cotton advanced to 13 1/2 cents.

In 1882 the House stood 300 Democrats to 119 Republicans. Cotton declined to 13 cents.

In 1884 Cleveland was elected. The House stood 184 Democrats to 140 Republicans. A Democratic House, and cotton declined to 11 1/2 cents.

In 1886 the House stood 170 Democrats to 151 Republicans. A Democratic House, and cotton went to 9 1/2 cents—Cleveland High Prices.

In 1888 Harrison was elected. The House stood 150 Democrats to 173 Republicans. A Republican House, and cotton advanced to 11 1/2 cents.

In 1890 the House stood 235 Democrats to 88 Republicans. The price went to 6 1/2 cents.

These prices are quoted from Alfred B. Stephenson, Cotton Exchange, New York, and are New York prices.

Cotton sold before the war, under absolute Democratic rule, as low as 3 1/2 cents per pound.

Ten Lager Tubs good for five cents. Redeemed by C. A. Raine & Co., Danville, Va.

The estimate for pensions, to be embodied in the Pension Appropriation Bill, is $10,000,000 less than the estimate for last year.

CURRENCY.

Carlisle Proposes a Complete Revision of the System.

He Will Submit His Views at the Coming Session of Congress.

Both the Secretary and the President believe it is much better to stir this question now than it is to postpone it until another Congress, when the uncertainty of its fate at the hands of an opposition majority would be even more problematical than now, and when the political effect of bringing a new issue into the front on the eve of a presidential election might be disastrous.

It will be remembered that Mr. Cleveland in a statement denied that he had any plans in this direction, but asserted that Mr. Carlisle would present to the treasury department a bill which he would introduce. The secretary of the treasury does not favor a commission, as has been stated, which would only cause a postponement of legislation until the republicans organize the house. He will submit his views to the democratic congress, so that it can pass judgment upon his scheme without delay.

Both Mr. Carlisle and the president believe that it is much better to stir this question now than it is to postpone it until another Congress, when the uncertainty of its fate at the hands of an opposition majority would be even more problematical than now, and when the political effect of bringing a new issue into the front on the eve of a presidential election might be disastrous.

While the gold reserve will be restored to the $100,000,000 basis by the arrangement with the Stewart syndicate, it is known to Mr. Carlisle, as well as to every other financier who has given the subject study, that the reserve will again dwindle, and that another bond sale will be necessary for its replenishment.

On this changeless foundation rests the entire issue of $340,000,000 in greenbacks, as well as all the treasury notes. The latter are redeemable in coin, although representing a silver deposit, but the secretary of the treasury must pay gold when demanded by the holder of any form of United States currency other than silver certificates and national bank notes. Instead of $100,000,000 of the gold reserve, which is forty per cent of the legal tender in circulation, the secretary should have constantly on hand $150,000,000 of gold.

This extraordinary and peculiar situation will be laid before Congress by Mr. Carlisle in the hope that some remedy will be devised. It is needless at this time to repeat the numerous remedies which have been suggested, in view of the fact that Mr. Cleveland will present, through Mr. Carlisle, a plan to Congress next week, or at least will name a few of those which have been brought forward.

The pathway of the administration will be rendered difficult by the fact that the winter is certain to be profitable in vanishing quorums. Already the secretaries of the house has received letters from twenty-five members, informing him that they do not intend to come to Washington this winter and requesting him to forward their mileage. It is probable that these requests represent only a small proportion who will linger at home in early session.

The only remedy for the threatened absenteeism will be the refusal of Speaker Crisp to certify the pay vouchers of absent members, but a house of representatives brought together thus under the compulsion will not be marked for efficiency.

To settle an Old Debt.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 27.—The commission appointed at the last meeting of the legislature to effect an adjustment with West Virginia of the latter's proportion of the debt of the original state—that is, the West Virginia certificate—met here Monday and organized. All that was done was to sign a resolution giving notice to certificate holders that the commission was open to negotiations under the terms of the resolution and ready to be treated with. The commission then adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman, Mr. John B. Moore, of Allegheny.

Double Suicide.

EL DORADO, Ia., Nov. 27.—Ernest Weimer committed suicide Monday by severing an artery. While an investigation was being made, his sister, Johanna, was severely questioned, and, fearing she would be charged with the crime, she took a large dose of poison while the officers were not looking, dying shortly afterward. Trouble with the sister's husband is supposed to have been the cause of Weimer's act.

They Want to Gamble.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 27.—The gamblers of Denver can not resume business, at least during the present police administration. ## MRS. GERST ESCAPES.

Another Session in the Post Cases at Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Matilda Gerst, alias Mrs. John Harris, alias Jennie Emerson, and alias many other names in connection with the Delaney-Packer lumber swindle and the Wm. E. Delaney Discretionary Pool syndicate, is missing.

Charles Delaney, brother of the missing pool operator, was Monday morning placed under arrest.

The attorneys managing the prosecutions against Delaney, Packer et al. have been greatly inconvenienced by the illness of Mrs. Gerst. They did not want to be inhuman, and refrained from placing her under arrest. Her recovery and subsequent relapse caused suspicion. Sunday it was determined to place Mrs. Gerst under arrest Monday morning. In pursuance of this plan, early Monday morning officers, armed with the necessary warrants, went to the residence of Mrs. Gerst in Allegheny and demanded her.

Mrs. Gerst could not be found, and there is not now any definite clew to her whereabouts.

HER SECRET OUT.

Why a Philadelphia Woman Pleaded Guilty to Larceny in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 27.—On July 26 a woman giving her name as Mrs. Adeline Hall was arrested upon a charge of larceny. She said her name was Mrs. Holly Strong. She was held awaiting trial until last Thursday, when she suddenly decided to plead guilty and received a sentence of six months in the house of correction. It is now asserted that her real name is Mrs. Adeline Featherstone; that her home is in Philadelphia; that she is the heiress to a large fortune and that she preferred imprisonment to an appeal for aid, which would acquaint her relatives with her trouble. It is said that Mrs. Featherstone has been unable to secure her legacy, owing to litigation connected with the death of her father-in-law, said to be Gen. Featherstone of Philadelphia, who made the bequest. The lawsuit is now pending in an eastern court. Mrs. Featherstone is said to have a sister in St. Louis. Mrs. Featherstone came here from Chicago.

And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN—the weekly edition of The Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN is highly appreciated by those at a distance? Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.
